GENERAL REFERENCES

The Children's Initiative prepared this document with references that support the content of the 2019 Live Well San Diego Report Card. These references support the content in sections such as: why is this important, what strategies can make a difference, and how can we improve the trend. This is not a complete or exhaustive list of references that undergird the content of the Report Card. This document builds upon reference lists from the prior editions, focusing primarily on references published since 2016. This list does not overlap substantially with the separate list of data sources. We acknowledge and appreciate the suggestions of the Scientific Advisory Review Committee.
